

OSWEGO COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

HIPPA TRAINING TEST

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

1. Three forms of sensitive information are:

2. Name three samples of sensitive information

3. HIPPA is a federal law designed to protect sensitive information know as:

4. Any person, organization that furnishes, bills or paid for health care services is called:

5. Any information that can be used to identify a patient is called:

6. An employee may only access or disclose a patient's _____ when this access is part of the employee's job duties.

7. It is never acceptable for an employee to look at _____ just out of curiosity

8. A _____ occurs when information that, by law, must be protected

9. Breaches must be reported to your supervisor and:

_____ or _____

10. Breaches of information may result in both penalties:

_____ and _____

11. Name two patient rights:

12. HIPPA required that only the amount of PHI that is _____ to accomplish the intended purpose be used or disclosed.

13. An outside company or individual is a _____ of the hospital when performing functions or providing services involving the use or disclosure

14. The _____ concentrates on safeguarding PHI by focusing on the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of PHI
15. Sensitive information and PHI should never be place in the regular _____ but shredded or placed in secure bin
16. Individuals who violate the Hospital's information security policy will be subject to:

17. The Privacy office is _____, the security officer is _____
18. The _____ officer writes policies and procedures and walk through for violations, the _____ officer investigates complaints
19. Many of HIPPA's security and privacy rules now apply directly to business associates as a result of the passage of the HITECH Act. TRUE FALSE